Womanspace President & CEO Nathalie Nelson Appointed To New Jersey Center for Nonprofits' Board of Trustees

Lawrenceville, NJ, May 22, 2023 – Womanspace President & CEO Nathalie Nelson was recently appointed to the Board of Trustees of the New Jersey Center for Nonprofits, the only statewide network for all charities in the state.

For more than 40 years, the New Jersey Center for Nonprofits network has come together to share knowledge, amplify a collective voice, get expert advice, and advocate for a strong nonprofit community that protects the greater good in the Garden State. The aim is to help ensure New Jersey's nonprofits are a vital force for advancing a just, thriving, and equitable society.

"I am honored to lend my time and talent to an organization so critically important to the success of the nonprofit sector in the State of NJ, and by extension, to the lives of the millions served by these organizations," said Nathalie Nelson upon her appointment.

Nathalie has been with Womanspace for over 10 years, where she also served as the Director of Human Resources and Operations. Nathalie's areas of expertise include finance, compliance, operations, technology, and human resources.
She is also passionate about volunteerism and serving her community. She participated in Haiti's post-earthquake recovery efforts, as well as served as a CCD teacher and soup kitchen volunteer. Nathalie is currently Vice President of the East Amwell Township School PTO, Chair of the Parks and Recreation Committee, and a member of the Planning Board. Nathalie holds a Master's Degree in Public Administration and a certificate in Non-Profit Financial Management, both from Rutgers University.
